SAFE. PERFECT. PACKED.

UNIPACK™

self-adhesive document pouches meet logistical challenges every day, all around the globe. Documents such as freight papers and operating manuals are delivered very safely – in a way that's safe for the environment, too. Adhesive-free areas ensure easy handling. Our standard range includes five different sizes, three different closure systems and numerous different overprints in our standard range. You'd like a customised product? On request, we'll produce your own individual, self-adhesive UNIPACK™ document pouch in up to four colours and even in customised sizes.

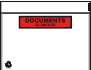

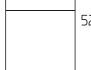

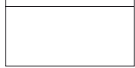

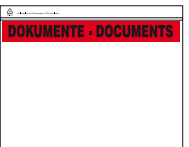

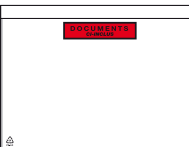

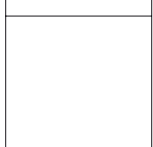

Overview of features:

- UNIPACK™ pouches are ideal for cash-on-delivery documents, addresses, operating manuals with machines, book routeing cards, warranty documents, consignment notes, shipping papers, vehicle registration documents and much more
- Customised sizes and special versions to your precise specifications with up to 4-colour print on request (minimum order: 10,000 pcs)

- Optionally available with adhesive closure or resealable closure
- Available with FSC®-certified protective paper on request
- available with unglued flap (without closure) on request
